Behaviour Policy (Please keep section this for your records)

BTCV leaders will encourage positive behaviour among the York Youth Rangers at all times, including team working, tolerance and respect for views and opinions of others. This will be promoted through the positive actions that the York Youth Rangers will take in the care of the environment.

The York Youth Rangers will develop their own rules of conduct, supported and maintained by the BTCV leaders.

In the unlikely event of bullying or inappropriate behaviour, the parent will be contacted, and if it persists, the child concerned will not be allowed to attend.

Complaints Procedures

Please feel free to discuss any issues regarding the club with the BTCV leaders. However, should any parent wish to make a formal complaint to a third party about the York Youth Rangers club or the BTCV leaders, they should contact the York office at:
